BLASTOFF—'82

Energetic! Enthusiastic! Excitable! This was the year, 1981-1982, at Vernon High School. From Bar-B-Cue to Banquet, from Biology to Ballgames, the students had a BLAST. This is why the theme of this yearbook is BLASTOFF—'82!

ADMINISTRATION

If energy, enthusiasm, and excitement characterized Vernon High School in 1982, the impetus came from the two men at the top Jerry Tyre, Principal, and Michael Welch, Assistant Principal. Mr. Tyre "fired up everybody," reminding us that there are no finer students, anywhere, than those at V.H.S." With his usual zest, he juggled all the responsibilities that come across his busy desk. Mr. Welch, with his impressive efficiency and good humor, took care of a wide assortment of duties, from schedule to textbooks, and including a paddling now and then. (A BLASTOFF sometimes demands a disciplinary swing of the board!) Thanks to our dedicated and highly capable Administration for a great year!

GUIDANCE

As you enter the front doors of Vernon High School, you see on the left, the Guidance Office. Part of the energy and enthusiasm the students felt this year was inspired by Carol Ard, Guidance Counselor. Mrs. Ard makes out individual schedules, helping students find the right classes. She also helps to guide the individual student into the right career or military choice. If scholarships might be available, she tries to find the right student to "go for it!" Thanks to Mrs. Ard, many students are going the right direction when they BLASTOFF from Vernon High School.

TRANSPORTATION

Many times the busdrivers are the unsung heroes of the day. They listen to our troubles; they give advice; they fuss at us when we need it. Some mornings (and some afternoons) their common sense and sense-of-humor are just what we need. In a school like Vernon High School, where so many students get here by bus, we say thank you for MILES and MILES of safe driving!

Front: JAMES ELLIS, EDNA PETTIS, JUDY DYBOL, NELL SUGGS, SYLVIA HOGANS
Back: CHRISTINE MURPHY, SHERRIE COOK, FAYE HUTCHINS, HELENA MORRIS, EULA MAE BROXTON, BOBBY HADDOCK, JESSIE CASEY SHELBY HADDOCK.

BLASTOFF of a typical school day . . .

Top left: Students emerge from school busses. Top right: a familiar "Tap, tap" on the intercom, followed by, "May I have your attention, please?" from Mr. Tyre might start the day. Above, middle: M.E. Adkison and Mr. Riley start the day with a cup of coffee and the newspaper. Bottom, left: Miss Haddock gives individual attention in Algebra I. Above: Shannon Brown wonders what's going on behind his back.

Mr. and Miss V.H.S.

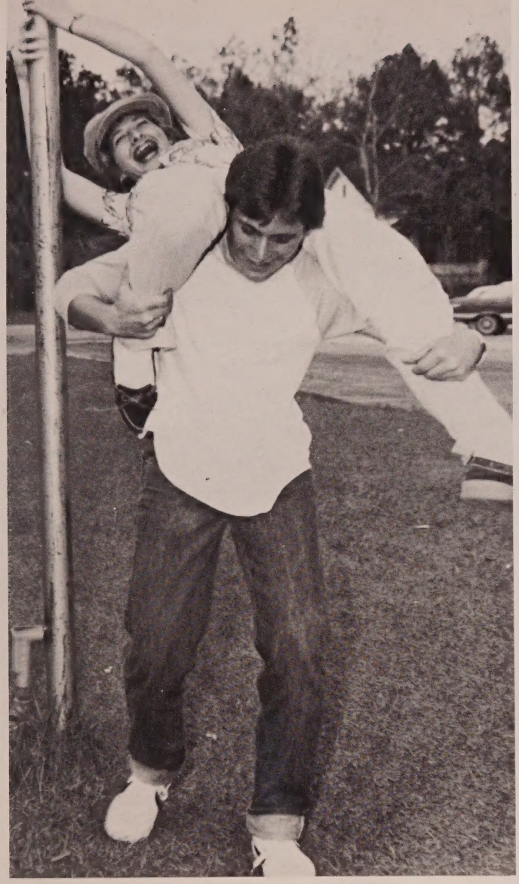
Charles Dennis--Rachel Segers



You can Let go of the pole now, Rachel!

Charles Dennis and Rachel Segers were voted as Mr. and Miss V.H.S. for school year 1981-82. Both of these outstanding seniors were very active in school.

Charles was President of NHS, FFA and was a vital part on the Mighty Yellow Jackets football team; he was also a member of the V-Club.

Rachel was President of the Junior and Senior class, was a member of Quill and Scroll, National Honor Society and YEA. Both were voted "Most Dependable.

Mr. and Miss V.H.S. is an honor conferred annually on two seniors, by popular vote of the student body. Qualifications are leadership, character and academic average of C or better.

SENIOR FAVORITES

Sean McGinnis and Regina Lewis

SENIOR BEAUTIES

Patricia Smith

Patricia Smith and Sheila Davis were two of eight seniors nominated by the Senior Class. These beauties were selected from photographs, by judges outside the Vernon community.

Patricia Smith, the 1981-82 Homecoming Queen, was chosen as one of the Senior Beauties. Pat was also a majorette of the VHS Band and a vital player of the softball team.

The other lovely young lady chosen as Senior Beauty, nominated by the students in her class and voted on by unbiased judges, was Sheila Davis.

Sheila was second runner-up in the Miss Vernon contest, was also an active member of the volleyball and basketball teams.

Ten seniors were elected to the SENIOR HALL OF FAME in 1982. This honor is based on nomination by faculty members, and election by a special faculty committee. The basis for membership is the following question: "What has this student contributed to VHS during his or her years here?" The number of seniors elected is limited to approximately ten percent of the Senior Class.

Picture not available for Senior Hall of Fame was Ricky Peterson.
